How do I make a complaint?

If you are dissatisfied and you want to make a complaint, we would like the opportunity to put things right. Please contact us using the details below.

We will acknowledge your complaint in writing within 3 working days, investigate your complaint and endeavour to send you a final response within 8 weeks of receipt of the complaint. If we are unable to provide you with a final response within this time, we will send you an update. If you are not happy with our final response you can escalate your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman, you will receive a leaflet detailing this with your final response letter.

Financial Services Compensation Scheme

The FSCS provides protection for consumers if an authorised firm becomes insolvent and is unable to meet its obligations. The amount of compensation for which you may be eligible depends on the firm declared in default, the type of product you have. In some circumstances you may not be eligible for any compensation at all from the FSCS. Information on compensation can be found on the FSCS website, please visit fscs.org.uk or call 0800 678 1100.

What happens if we go out of business?

In the unlikely event that we become insolvent or cannot meet our obligations Your funeral plan may be transferred and carried out by another provider with the same terms and conditions.

However, if this is not possible, You (or Your Funeral Representative if you have died) will have a legal right to claim Your money back from Our Insurance Provider.

If a transfer of Your plan to another provider or return of Your money is not possible, You may be entitled to compensation under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.
